

RETURNS

Your purchase comes with a 30-day satisfaction guarantee starting from when you receive your order. This means that if you are not completely satisfied, you can return your order for a full refund, size swap or an exchange. It can take a few days to get used to our orthotic products, so please give your feet some time to adjust to the support. If you have trimmed your insoles you can still send them back to us, don't worry! Some products will need to be in their original condition to qualify for a refund/exchange. Visit <https://footactive.co.uk/delivery-returns> for more information.

If you are sending items back to us, please fill out the form below and include it within your return. Once we have received your return, we will process your request as quickly as possible. We ask that customers cover the cost of postage when sending items back to us. We will cover the postage costs when sending exchanged items back to a UK address. International exchanges will be subject to a postage charge.
